

Learning to save a life

The Ottawa Citizen
Sat May 29 2010
Page: C7

Wayne Cuddington, The Ottawa Citizen

With encouragement from Holy Trinity student Dylan Lawrence, 15, left, and Cyril Leeder, president of the Ottawa Senators, Ottawa-Vanier MPP Madeleine Meilleur tries out her CPR knowledge on a training dummy. The Advanced Coronary Treatment (ACT) Foundation has announced that, through a special program, defibrillators will be placed into area high schools and Grade 9 students will be trained in CPR and AED. The Ottawa ACT High School program is supported by the Ontario government, the Senators Foundation, Senators owner Eugene Melnyk and the Heart and Stroke Foundation.