

CPR skills not for dummies

Wednesday June 9, 2010

Page: A13

Nick Procylo, PNG

Students at Richmond Secondary School listen as B.C. Minister of Education Margaret MacDiarmid announces that all students in the province's public schools will receive CPR training. Funding for the initiative has been made possible by a $500,000 donation from pharmaceutical companies AstraZeneca Canada, Pfizer Canada and sanofi-aventis, and will be administered by the ACT Foundation.